November 2020 – Traveling Traditions

Meghan's Memo

- Friday, 11/13 – Flannel Friday! Wear your fav flannel!
- Wednesday, 11/18 – Mickey Day! Wear your best gear!
- Thursday, 11/26 & Friday, 11/27 – CLOSED for Thanksgiving and the day after Thanksgiving!
- Monday, 11/30 – Pajama Day!
- Drop-off/Pick-up – With the colder weather officially here, we are transitioning drop-off & pick-up to be inside our hallway area. This will definitely be a transition for all of us but please bear with us as we work through it. Please stay in your car still, one parent is allowed inside at a time and we will signal you when it is your turn. We will have you enter the main entrance then leave through the second door. This same process will be used for Pick-up as well. Please be patient with us and please be as quick as you can while still informing teachers of your child's updates.
- Family Recipe Book – Miss Meggie will be putting this together again! Please submit a Family Recipe via email by Friday, 11/13 and will provide you with a Recipe Book!
- Snacks – reminder to pack EXTRA snacks for morning and afternoon snack, along with extra snacks for lunch. At least 5 snacks in total for each day and if packing a pouch of any kind, please pack another extra snack to go with it.
- Scholastic Book Orders – NEW DUE DATES! November due by Friday, 11/13; Online orders use the code: RN694

We would love to have everyone give us some of your family traditions during this Thanksgiving season. We will be sending something home soon; we look forward to reading all about your family's traditions. >> Thank you, Miss Sharon & Miss Ryley

Toddler Talk –

We are so excited about the month of November! We do have two very special projects that involve all the families.

First one is we ask each family to bring in a special recipe so we can make a center wide cookbook. If you could please send in the recipes via email by November 13th, that would work best.

Second, we will be sending home a zip-lock bag that has different colored pieces of construction paper. There will be enough paper for everyone in the family. Please trace both hands of everyone in the family and send it back in, then we will make a family turkey. Please send back the handprints by November 13th as well.

We are learning about family traditions and what we are thankful for. We are so thankful for all our families here!

11/16 – Happy Birthday to Jasiah!

>> Thank you,
Miss Meggie & Miss Stephanie

Preschool Press –

October was a blast, especially the Boo Bash! We loved hearing all the great costumes. We are looking forward to November to learn about transportation and family traditions around Thanksgiving.

Along with sending in a Family Recipe via email for our center Cookbook, we are going to be creating Family Turkeys and we will need your help! We are sending home different colored pieces of construction paper for each family member. Please have each member of the family trace both hands, and send back in by Wednesday, 11/11.

>> Thank you,
Miss Emily
